

Carlin Fritz, ESOL Level 1

Education:

Bachelor's degree in Spanish education from West Chester University of Pennsylvania; Master's degree in teaching English learners from American College of Education

Distinguishing Honors:

Mrs. Fritz taught adult English as a second language in Pennsylvania from 2008-2012. She has been teaching adult ESOL for the School District of Palm Beach County since 2012. She worked for the SDPBC Department of Adult and Community Education from 2014-2018 as an instructional coach. She regularly presents at education conferences and professional development events on the topics of pedagogy, andragogy, and educational technology. She holds a Florida Department of Education Professional Certificate in English for Speakers of Other Languages.