Tips for the first year of high school

- COMPLETE YOUR HOMEWORK THE SAME DAY IT IS ASSIGNED (I.E. ODD DAY HOMEWORK COMPLETED ON THE ODD DAY).
- Figure out where you are falling short and try something different to fix the issue
- Communicate with your teachers
 - See your teacher for additional help outside of class, try the after school Math paper service on Tuesdays and Thursdays in the Media Center, try the Paper tutoring service (located in the student's district portal; available 24/7 and in various languages)
- Pay attention in class - don't hesitate to ask questions
- Ensure you have an organizational system for classes
- Improve note taking skills
- Find the right learning/study style
 - This learning/study style may vary depending on the subject area
- Be proactive with learning and do not procrastinate!
- Find a student tutor through the Honor Societies
- Prepare for exams as early as possible - ensure you are organized and strategize for your exams when managing your study time.
 - With those subjects that are more challenging, make a plan to start seeing the teacher for extra help earlier than you think.
 - Review old quizzes, tests, ask for extra practice.
- If you have a 504 or IEP, KNOW what is listed on it. If you do not know, ask your counselor/case manager for a copy.

INDUSTRY CERTIFICATION

In line with Palm Beach County School District's mission statement, all students must graduate college and career ready.

At West Boca High, we offer AP, AICE, dual enrollment and industry certification courses in order ensure our students are prepared for college and/or a career upon graduation.

Students are encouraged to graduate with at least one industry certification. These certifications save students money in the workforce and also help build their resume.

What is an AP Class?

- An Advanced Placement (AP) class is a highly rigorous college level course, and weighted accordingly. It is on a 6.0 scale just like AICE and dual enrollment classes. (Regular classes are on a 4.0 and Honors and pre-AICE are on a 4.5 scale)
- AP courses allows students to obtain college credits while in the supportive environment of a high school classroom.
- AP classes and exams are globally uniform. An AP class in Florida is the same as an AP class in Dubai. Universities recognize this, whereas with dual enrollment classes great variation exists.

What is the AP Exam?

- Must be taken at the end of the year.
- No charge to students at West Boca High unless you do not show for the exam
- Exams designed by professors from across the US, including Yale, Princeton and Dartmouth among many others.
- Depending upon your score, it is possible to earn college credit for general education requirements at a university, or a student can advance to the next level (i.e. ENC1102 instead of ENC1101).
- Preparation for the exam is throughout the year, with the exam given in May and results coming out in July.
- AP credit granted ONLY if exam is taken (course will drop to Honors level)

AP Courses & Changes

College Board revamped its AP testing process.

The deadline to order tests was moved up.

As a result, students may not drop AP courses after October 13th or they will be subject to a $40 obligation fee.

What is an AICE Course

- Advanced International Certificate of Education (AICE)
- International Pre-University Preparation Program branching off from University of Cambridge in England
- AS levels are designed to cover introductory material
- Potential to earn college credit
- Weighted 6.0 GPA scale
- More than 450 universities in the U.S recognize Cambridge International AS and A Levels, including ALL ivy league and ivy plus universities.

AICE Exams

- AICE tests are given at the end of a course and typically given in April/May but the dates vary.
- They can potentially fall after school ends
- Make-up dates are in November of the following school year
- Grades range from A-E; students need an A-E to pass the exam. U is ungraded and student did not pass exam

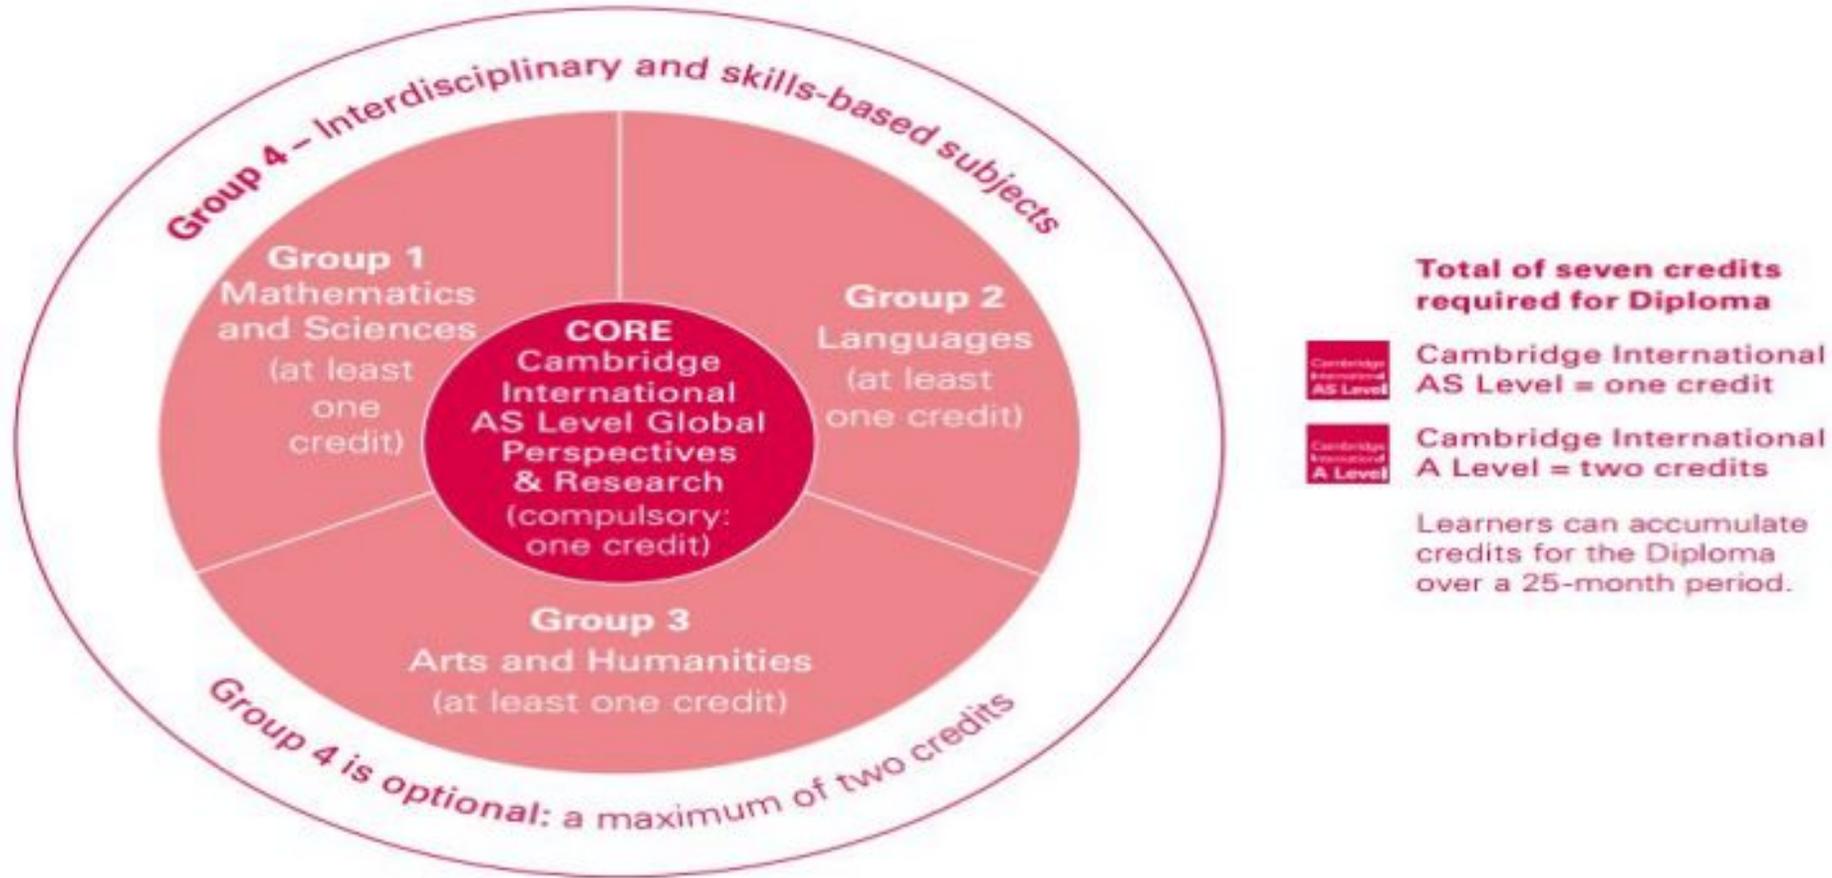

AICE Diploma

- Students who take AICE classes may choose to earn an AICE diploma
- AICE Diploma courses can start in 9th or 10th grade
- 25 month completion timeframe (THREE YEAR WINDOW)
- Maximum amount of tuition monies for Bright Futures upon completion of AICE diploma & 100 hours of community service

AICE Diploma

Learners must earn 7 credits (including Global Perspectives) from subject groups 1, 2, and 3 (Group 4 is optional) to be awarded the Diploma. Learners must achieve at least one credit from each of Groups 1, 2, and 3.

Accommodations for AP and AICE

*Students with IEP or 504 plans have the option to take their AP and AICE exams with testing accommodations. This process is different than the process used for FSA or EOC and requires an application through College Board (AP) and/or Cambridge (AICE). If you have an IEP, 504 plan or use any school based accommodations then you are not automatically qualified to use test accommodations on AP or AICE exams. Therefore all students seeking to use accommodations on their exams must see Ms. Lombardi (IEP) or Ms. Wolfe (504) by the start of second quarter to begin the process.

HAVE A GREAT SCHOOL YEAR!!!!

- READ THE PRINCIPAL'S UPDATE SENT TO YOUR INBOX EVERY FRIDAY/SATURDAY.
- Regularly self-assess: If what you are doing isn't producing the level of results/success that it should, then it is time to try something different.
- Ask your teacher, your counselor, or an assistant principal questions.
- Look at SIS with your parent/guardian once/week. More, if necessary.
- Communicate with your teachers in regards to your class, a grade, your accommodations. In high school, the expectation level is for the student to communicate with teachers. Have your student copy you (as a parent/guardian) on an email.
- Schedule an appointment with a teacher outside of class time to discuss an issue and obtain help.
 - If you are not succeeding on homework or assessments, look at it again, make corrections, and then see the teacher to ensure the corrections are correct.
- Avoid getting caught up in justifying and making excuses. Instead, focus your energies on being positive and proactive in confronting areas of difficulty head-on.
- Seek assistance if you need help! (teachers, counselors, APs)
