

THE SCHOOL DISTRICT OF PALM BEACH COUNTY
TECHNICAL OPERATIONS / RECORDS MANAGEMENT

Records Disposal Certification

OVERVIEW

Authorization has been given for the disposal of each record series listed on this 14-page Records Disposal Certification up to the date shown on Column "C. The records on this list have been reviewed and approved by the Records Management Liaison Officer. To prevent premature disposal of records, these records may only be destroyed by the DATES INDICATED and AFTER ALL AUDITS HAVE BEEN COMPLETED AND RELEASED. Return the completed form by the end of the current fiscal year to RECORDS MANAGEMENT, FHESC, Suite B-201, or to recordsmanagement@palmbeachschools.org

INSTRUCTIONS

Before returning the completed Records Disposal Certification, make sure these steps have been followed:

1. If a records hold exists for any record or the records are being audited, retain the documents until the records hold is lifted and the required retention per the Records Retention Schedule has passed.
2. The school/department name and number is entered on the top of each page.
3. Column "D. Volume" has been completed for each record series disposed of. This document must be downloaded in order to view the volume conversion chart below.
4. Select correct disposal method from the drop down under Column "E. Action" for each record series disposed of.
5. Column "F. Date" has been completed for each record series disposed of indicating the date records were destroyed.
6. The Principal/Director and a witness have signed page 13.
7. If disposing of Student Education Records Category A and B (Line #241-242), you must complete and submit the Student Document Center Quality Control form. Refer to the Records Management HUB for additional information.

Refer to the Records Retention Schedule for more detailed descriptions regarding what each category of records encompasses.

Page 14 may only be used if the reporting school has been opened less than 3 years or if the school or department will NOT dispose of records this fiscal year.
