The screenshot shows the Florida Department of Law Enforcement (FDLE) website. The header includes the FDLE logo, the name 'Mark Glass, Commissioner', and links for 'Contact FDLE' and 'Site Map'. A search bar is present. The main navigation menu includes 'About FDLE', 'Careers', 'Public Records', 'FDLE Regions & Divisions', and 'Quick Links'. The breadcrumb trail reads 'FDLE Home / Criminal History Records'. The left sidebar contains a 'Criminal History Records' menu with links to 'Florida Criminal History Record Check', 'National Criminal History Record Check', 'VECHS Program', 'Registered Livescan Submitters', 'Become a Livescan Provider', 'Criminal History Records Fee Schedule', and 'Contact Criminal History Records'. The main content area is titled 'Obtaining Criminal History Information' and contains a paragraph about the FDLE's role as the central repository for criminal history information. A red notice states: 'Effective July 1, 2020, FDLE will discontinue the use of Florida Criminal History Information Request forms via mail. For alternative electronic methods, visit Florida Criminal History Record Check.' Below this, there is a section for 'State and national criminal history information' with a handwritten note 'Click here!' pointing to a link. Another section discusses 'governmental agencies for licensing and employment' with a handwritten note 'Click here!' pointing to a link. At the bottom, there are links for 'Current list of Livescan Service Providers' and 'Livescan Device Vendors'.

The screenshot shows the Florida Department of Law Enforcement (FDLE) website page for the 'State of Florida Criminal History Record Check'. The header is identical to the previous screenshot. The breadcrumb trail reads 'FDLE Home / Criminal History Records > Florida Criminal History Record Check'. The left sidebar is identical to the previous screenshot. The main content area is titled 'State of Florida Criminal History Record Check' and contains a paragraph about the FDLE's role as the central repository for criminal history information. A red notice states: 'Effective July 1, 2020, FDLE will discontinue the use of Florida Criminal History Information Request forms via mail. Alternative options requesting Florida criminal history information include: The Instant Search, The Certified/Non-Certified, The ORI Search. These options require a fee that must be paid by debit or credit card at the time of the request.' Below this, there is a section for 'Instant Search' with a handwritten note 'Click here!' pointing to a link. The 'Instant Search' section includes a plus sign icon and a paragraph: 'Internet searches conducted by customers, with results available immediately. Your results can be printed or emailed. Results will NOT be certified.' Below this, it states: 'Each search costs $24.00, in addition to a $1.00 credit card processing fee, and must be paid by debit or credit card.' A bulleted list contains a link: 'Instant Florida Criminal History Search'.
